

Course Profile: A25/3 Tuxford Sporting TT

Two laps of this sporting course make up the 25 mile distance. Based at Tuxford, north Nottinghamshire.

Course Description

Start on B1164 (Ashvale Road, Tuxford) at marker on road adjacent to lamp column 10, 107 yards south of a pair of 40mph speed limit signs just south of the entry/exit slip road junction to the A1 southbound carriageway [green flag on map below].

Proceed south to Sutton on Trent to the junction with unclassified road to Grassthorpe on the south side of the railway bridge 4.86 miles.

Turn left (with care) and proceed via Grassthorpe (care on double bends) to the junction with Polly Taylors Road 8.167 miles. Turn left and continue past the junction to Skegby, forward through the double bend and continue to Tuxford (railway bridge over East Coast main line). Continue to the small traffic island at the entrance to Tuxford Academy and bear right to the junction with the A6075 Darlton Road, Give Way with care 11.595 miles.

Turn left onto A6075 and forward to the junction with B1164 Ashvale Road 12 miles.

Turn left on B1164 and continue through the start to complete the first lap 12.219 miles.

Repeat the course for a second lap (24.436 miles), continue forward beyond the railway bridge to Finish opposite a large stone pillar in the right hand verge just before the sign "Tuxford - historic market town" 25.000 miles [red flag on map below].

Course Map & Elevation

